Fatima

October 13 – The Sixth Apparition

Today was a memorable day. It was raining heavily on the nearly 70,000 people who made their way to the Cova. Each one had come there to witness a miracle. Included in this crowd were media people from newspapers all over the world, there to document what would or would not happen. Pictures of the three children had already been in the news and the world waited to see what was to happen. They all trod to the Cova in the mud, torrents of little streams forming on the ground. Many had umbrellas, and some did not. Besides the rain, it was cloudy and gray, not the sort of day one would expect a heavenly miracle. In her heart, Lucia worried, "What if the lady does not perform the miracle? What then?" The children came to the Cova and, as usual, led the rosary, saying the prayer at the end of each decade that the lady had requested they say. "O my Jesus...."

Finally, midday approached. Lucia told the crowd of people to close their umbrellas. Our Lady appeared and rose her hand, pointing to the sky. "Look at the sun!" Lucia exclaimed. Later, she had no memory of those words, as she was so immersed in what she was seeing. Up in the sky the sun began to move. Back and forth, up and down. It turned many colors – yellow, blue, green and purple. The people's faces reflected the colors of the sun. Then the sun appeared to plunge to the earth. People began screaming, kneeling, and confessing their sins. How could this be happening? Then, at 1 pm, as quickly as it had begun, the rain stopped and the sun returned to its rightful place in the sky. The ground and the people were completely dry and the sky was a beautiful bright blue. Here was the miracle the lady had promised to make people believe. The children could see St. Joseph and the Holy Child, who held up their hands to bless the world. There too was Our Lady of Carmel and Our Lady of Sorrows. The lady spoke: "I want to tell you that a chapel is to be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Continue always to pray the Rosary every day. The war is going to end, and the soldiers will soon return to their homes.. Do not offend the Lord our God anymore, because He is already so much offended."

AFTER THE APPARITIONS

On April 4, 1919, the First Friday of the month, Our Lady took Francisco, the Consoler of Jesus, to heaven. It was just short of two years from the first apparition.

Jacinta's death followed on February 20, 1920. Before she died, Lucia said to her, "It won't be long now til you go to Heaven. But what about me?" Jacinta answered her, "You poor thing! Don't cry! I'll pray lots and lots for you when I'm there. As for you, that's the way Our Lady wants it. If she wanted that for me, I'd gladly stay and suffer more for sinners!"

On June 17, 1921, Lucia leaves her home in Fatima to attend school in Porto, run by the Sisters of St. Dorothy. The bishop gave her the name of Mary of Sorrows (Maria dos Dores) to protect her identity. She enters the religious life in October, 1925, and professed her religious vows on October 3, 1934. Lucia finally becomes a cloistered Carmelite on May 13, 1948. On February 13, 2005, Lucia died at the age of 97. On February 19, 2006, Lucia's remains were transferred to the Basilica of the Shrine of Fatima.

Francisco and Jacinta Marto were both beatified by Pope John Paul II on May 13, 2000.

PRAYER FOR THE BEATIFICATION OF SISTER LUCIA

Most Holy Trinity, Father, son and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly.

By the infinite merits of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and through the intercession of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I implore You – if it should be for Your greater glory and the good of our souls – to glorify in the sight of Your Holy Church. Sister Lucia the Shepherdess of Fatima, granting us through her intercession the grace which we implore.

Our Father – Hail Mary – Glory be to the Father

Week of Prayer & Action
October 7-13, 2017
For Migrants & Refugees

A Moment for Grace

A Prayer for Refugees

God of our Wandering Ancestors,

Long have we known
That your heart is with the refugee:
That you were born into time
In a family of refugees
Fleeing violence in their homeland,
Who then gathered up their hungry child
And fled into alien country.

Their cry, your cry, resounds through the ages:
"Will you let me in?"

Give us hearts that break open
When our brothers and sisters turn to us with that same cry.
Then surely all these things will follow:
Ears will no longer turn deaf to their voices.
Eyes will see a moment for grace instead of a threat.
Tongues will not be silenced but will instead advocate.
And hands will reach out—
working for peace in their homeland, working for justice in the lands where they seek safe haven.

Lord, protect all refugees in their travels.
May they find a friend in me
And so make me worthy
Of the refuge I have found in you.

Amen

MINISTRY SCHEDULE PREPARATION

The next schedule will be from 11/11/17—1/22/18

Please have your changes to the office by Sunday, October 15th

Everyone assigned to 4:00pm-Elba and 5:30pm-Oakfield has been sent a letter addressing the change to one mass as of December 23rd. For those that have been in contact with me, thank you! If you haven't yet, please do so by this date as well.

Any schedule changes, etc., let me know by email: office@padrepiony.org, leave a note in the office or call 948-5344.

Rite of Christian Initiation

Our parish will be offering RCIA beginning in September for those who are interested in joining the Catholic Church and our community of St. Padre Pio. Classes will be on Thursdays at 7:00pm to prepare for an Easter Confirmation. This time is an opportunity for anyone interested in learning more about the Catholic faith.

If you are interested, please contact the office.

Call to Vocations

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." Like the work of Jesus, ministry in His church is countercultural. It is rooted not in the world of passing things, but in God's eternal kingdom. If God is calling you to a Church vocation, call Fr. Andrew Lauricella at 716-847-5535. You can also check out the "Priest of the Month" stories on our website <https://www.buffalodiocese.org/>
