50th Commemoration Anniversary of the passing of St Padre Pio and the 100th Anniversary of the emergence of his stigmata

PRAYER (Novena/Litany)

In honor of St Padre Pio and his suffering we celebrate his life. He has taught us to "Pray, Hope and Don't Worry" as "Worry is useless" and that "Prayer is the best weapon we have; it is the key to God's heart." Through his intercession we ask for our prayers to be answered by God. After Jesus ascended to Heaven, Mary, the Apostles, and other devoted disciples prayed constantly for nine days. Catholics pray nine-day novenas to show honor to various saints and to God. Based on this, beginning Sunday, September 23rd, our parish community will pray a nine day novena in honor of St. Padre Pio.

Copies of all the prayers used will be available at the church. The Novena/Litany prayers will take place at the end of each Mass during the celebration. The Litany will continue to be said on the 1st Wednesday of each month beginning October 3rd after the 7:00pm Mass.

SEPTEMBER 30th

The statue of the Holy Family from St. Patrick's in Wheatville, (where it stood in a grotto until it's closing) is being relocated outside the Oakfield church by the generous donation of Ron & Bernice Hochmuth. On this special occasion, the statue will be blessed before Mass, with the Novena/Litany recited at the end of Mass.

A light luncheon to celebrate these St Padre Pio anniversaries will follow in the parish hall, everyone is invited.

The Blessing of the Holy Family statue takes place at the beginning of Mass on Sunday, 10:00am in Oakfield

This statue originally stood at St. Patrick's Church in Wheatville, NY. In 1948, St. Patrick's became a mission church to St. Cecilia's of Oakfield, with Rev. August Parwulski as pastor.

50th Anniversary of St Padre Pio Death

The ladies of the church organized the Altar Society in 1956.

This Society had a stone grotto built in 1959 to house a statue of the Holy Family made from Italian marble, which was donated by Mr. & Mrs. Libario Tambe.

Today, we dedicate this statue and burn the Sanctuary Lamp this week for God's Peace for Ronald Hochmuth Sr.
By wife, Bernice & Family
