FATIMA

October 13 – The Sixth Apparition

Today was a memorable day. It was raining heavily on the nearly 70,000 people who made their way to the Cova. Each one had come there to witness a miracle. Included in this crowd were media people from newspapers all over the world, there to document what would or would not happen. Pictures of the three children had already been in the news and the world waited to see what was to happen. They all trod to the Cova in the mud, torrents of little streams forming on the ground. Many had umbrellas, and some did not. Besides the rain, it was cloudy and gray, not the sort of day one would expect a heavenly miracle. In her heart, Lucia worried, “What if the lady does not perform the miracle? What then?” The children came to the Cova and, as usual, led the rosary, saying the prayer at the end of each decade that the lady had requested they say. “O my Jesus....”

Finally, midday approached. Lucia told the crowd of people to close their umbrellas. Our Lady appeared and rose her hand, pointing to the sky. “Look at the sun!” Lucia exclaimed. Later, she had no memory of those words, as she was so immersed in what she was seeing. Up in the sky the sun began to move. Back and forth, up and down. It turned many colors – yellow, blue, green and purple. The people’s faces reflected the colors of the sun. Then the sun appeared to plunge to the earth. People began screaming, kneeling, and confessing their sins. How could this be happening? Then, at 1 pm, as quickly as it had begun, the rain stopped and the sun returned to its rightful place in the sky. The ground and the people were completely dry and the sky was a beautiful bright blue. Here was the miracle the lady had promised to make people believe. The children could see St. Joseph and the Holy Child, who held up their hands to bless the world. There too was Our Lady of Carmel and Our Lady of Sorrows. The lady spoke: “I want to tell you that a chapel is to be built here in my honor. I am the Lady of the Rosary. Continue always to pray the Rosary every day. The war is going to end, and the soldiers will soon return to their homes.. Do not offend the Lord our God anymore, because He is already so much offended.”

LIVE ROSARY

Dear Father Ted and Padre Pio Parish Family, I'd like to thank you so much for helping to make my 95th birthday a very special one. The Mass with Papal Blessing and party were wonderful; and your cards, thoughtful notes, prayers and gifts are so appreciated. I've been too spoiled, but I'll admit it is nice and fun too! God Bless you all.

Love, Rose Mead

Respect for Life Celebration of Mass

"Be Not Afraid" has been a consistent theme of St. John Paul II and Pope Francis and one that has particular urgency today. This year's theme for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Respect Life Program fills us with encouragement and hope and calls us to love, defend and celebrate all human life. It calls us to joyfully follow the example of Christ, to love without limits, and further, to act on that sense of true Christian charity.

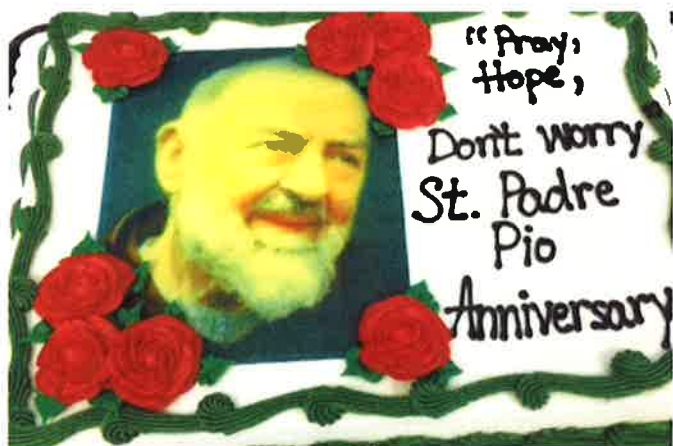

We celebrate October as Respect Life Month, but we are reminded all year round of the sacredness of life and the joy of love. Our Office of Pro-Life Activities, the St. Gianna Pregnancy Outreach Center, the Mother Teresa Home and the Project Rachel Ministry along with our pastors, parish Respect Life coordinators, and members of our "Vine and Branches" committee stand ready to implement this program and partner with each of you in defending and celebrating human life. Together we commit ourselves to the sanctity and dignity of all human life at all stages.

Through prayer and through the celebration of Mass and the sacraments, we can know and love God better and open our hearts to all human life. In Pope Francis' Day for Life Greeting, he reminds us "Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God's creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect."

You are invited and encouraged to join our auxiliary bishop, Most Reverend Edward M. Grosz, on Respect Life Sunday, Oct. 1, at St. Joseph's Cathedral as he celebrates the Eucharist at 10:30 a.m. Bishop Grosz looks forward to the opportunity to bless babies, expectant mothers and families immediately after Mass. This will be followed by a social with light refreshments.
