This week's Gospel: Luke 18:1-8

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus exalts a widow who persistently petitions for her needs. The unjust judge's softening of heart dramatizes God's willingness to respond to our frequent prayers.

Asking God for what we want and need will help us clarify what is really important. This week provides a good opportunity to review how your family lives and prays together.

Call to Vocations

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, St. Paul gives us a minister's job description: "proclaim the word...whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching."
Interested?

Applications are being accepted at 716-847-5535 or buffalovocations.org.

Thank you to all our parishioners who have volunteered for ministries. We are still in need of more help, anyone interested in becoming a Lector, Usher, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server or Greeter, please let Father Ted know at Mass or contact the office for more information. Your participation is important and what makes our parish vibrant and strong.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday will be celebrated in our church and throughout the world on the weekend of October 22nd & 23rd. The month of October has been designated as an Extraordinary Mission Month to foster greater awareness of mission ad gentes and to animate the missionary transformation of Church life and pastoral activity. In this year 2022, Pope Francis calls us to reflect on the three key phrases that synthesize the three foundations of the life and mission of every follower of Jesus. "You shall be my witness", "to the ends of the earth" and "you shall receive the power of the Holy Spirit".

Through the World Mission Sunday Second Collection, the Society for the Propagation of the Faith helps the Society to provide resources to missionaries in 1,111 mission dioceses throughout the world who care for Christian communities in need and for the proclamation of the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

Let us fulfill our call by being missionaries to one another, through prayers and support, to the people doing mission work in different countries in the world.

Envelopes are available at each church location.

Catholic Charities is a beacon of HOPE

Our agency offers assistance to all ages- from cradle to grave-in a myriad of capacities. We can help with basic needs, such as food and clothing; counseling and mental health services to children, teens and adults; education and workforce support; family safety and stabilization; and so much more. Find out how Catholic Charities can be a beacon of HOPE for you by visiting www.ccwny.org. General inquiries and request for assistance can be made online at any time at: www.ccwny.org/get-help.

Please send in ALL SOULS day envelopes to the office by Tuesday, November 1st
for your loved ones to be included in the bulletin for the weekend of November 5th & 6th, 2022

Lesson 5 • October 16, 2022 • 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Take care, then, to partake of one Eucharist; for, one is the flesh of our Lord Jesus Christ, and one the cup to unite us with his Blood, and one altar . . . Thus you will conform in all your actions to the will of God.

-Saint Ignatius of Antioch

There are thousands of Catholic churches throughout the world. In each one, no matter what language is spoken, the celebration of Mass makes the Body and Blood of Christ present. When any priest, anywhere, says the words, "this is my Body," and "this is my Blood," the Real Presence of Jesus comes into what were bread and wine. Saint Ignatius reminds us that we are one Church, and that we should all be receiving the one Eucharist. No matter where we are in the world, we should make it a priority to celebrate Sunday Mass with the community. Receiving Jesus helps us to know and to do the will of God.
